

The Believers' Authority

I have been given dominion over the Earth, which means I have the ability to rule over it, just as God rules over Heaven. I am made in the image of God, and like Him, I have been charged to create my world and impact the world around me with the Word. My tongue is the pen of a ready writer and when I speak the Word of God in faith, I receive manifestation immediately. There's nothing in my life that I do not have authority over. God has the final say on everything, and when I arm my mouth with His Word I have the final say on everything. It is what it is, but it will become whatever I say. I am Heaven's establishing witness. I agree with God and believe His Word is power, and I release it over every situation in my life. Therefore, I cannot be stopped. I win no matter what. Never again will I be subject to the things of this world. The Word is above this world's system, and when I walk, talk and think in line with the Word, so am I! I know who I am in Christ, and I know the authority He's invested in me, so today I make a decision to exercise my authority. Whatever I say is backed by Heaven and the Earth must submit to it. I declare this to be so right now in Jesus' name.

Scripture References: Genesis 1:26; Proverbs 18:21; Psalm 45:1; Matthew 18; Psalm 115:16