

The Will of God

Before the foundations of the world God called me by name and established my purpose. I was born for a time such as this and I exist to do a mighty work for the Kingdom. Since God created me to do His will, I vow to never again allow my purpose to be overshadowed because I'm seeking provisions. God is my Provider, which means I have the freedom to pursue my purpose. I vow to seek God and continue to renew my mind with His Word because I know that having a renewed mind is the only way I will discover the will of God for my life. Therefore, I make a commitment to renew my mind by reading the Word of God daily. I will also live as it instructs knowing that it too is the will of God. Starting today, I will align my life and actions up with the Word and allow God to lead me in every way. I will submit my plans and purpose to Him, confident that He will cause my thinking to align with His will. My days of doing whatever I want are over! No longer will I go around trying to establish my own righteousness. From this moment on, it's all about God's perfect will for me, which I declare by faith is revealed to me with more clarity each day that I seek Him. In Jesus' name!
